September Prayer Intention

For the Cry of the Earth

We pray that each one of us will hear and take to heart the cry of the Earth and of victims of natural disasters and climactic change, and that all will undertake to personally care for the world in which we live.

“Jesus knows we are sinners; he knows we make many mistakes, but he does not give up on joining his life to ours. He knows that we need the Eucharist, because the Eucharist is not the reward of saints, but the bread of sinners. This is why he exhorts us:

“Do not be afraid! Take and eat.”

Love Without Measure...

I was running late, very late. I had an appointment to anoint a parishioner who was in the final days of his life. His family was already gathered around his bedside. I was stuck in traffic on I 75. When I finally arrived at the nursing home, I parked my car and began to make my way quickly through the lobby. About halfway across I saw an elderly woman on the other side of the lobby standing with a walker. She was waving at me. I did not know the woman, but she saw my collar and she was obviously anxious to talk with me. "Father, Father!" she cried, "What parish are you from?" I could see that she seemed somewhat confused, and although she wanted to talk with me, I had people waiting on me. "Saint Henry, God Bless you." And I quickly ran down the hall to the family waiting on me.

It was only after the anointing, as I got back into my car, that I thought of the woman and how I had treated her. I was disturbed and uncomfortable with my behavior. At first, I could not figure out why. I had people waiting and I was late. And I then realized that I should have stopped and given the woman a moment. If anything Pope Francis inspires by his example is a concern for the least among us. I seem to have all the right words but when it comes to action or application I fall short.

The hallmark of Francis' ministry as pope is that he not only speaks to kings and presidents, but he stops to speak to the poor, the imprisoned, and those struggling to find their way. In doing this he is following the example of Jesus in today's gospel. When Jesus tells us that if we wish to be the first we must become last, he is not saying that a homeless person is of more value than a billionaire. But he is telling us that a homeless person deserves our time and attention just as much as someone whom society admires. When Jesus takes a vulnerable child and embraces it in the midst of his disciples, he is not saying that the most vulnerable among us are worth more than we are but is saying that our standing in his eye is tied to the way we treat the last among us.

Who is the least in your family? Who is the person others dismiss or ignore? Jesus is telling us that if we wish to be his disciples, we must somehow appreciate the value and worth of that person. Who is the least in your relationships, the person who has hurt you or spoken against you. Jesus is telling us that he measures our relationship to him, in light of, our willingness to be reconciled to that person. Who is the most vulnerable in our society, the malnourished, the unborn, the immigrant, the imprisoned, perhaps today we might mention the Haitian people? Jesus is telling us that our nation will be judged by its willingness to serve the most vulnerable, the least among us.

What does our present political environment say about us?
Continue to pray for the people of Springfield.

Several days ago, Aldo Fierro, our finance manager informed me that he would be leaving us to pursue other vocational goals. I was surprised but given Aldo's skills and knowledge I can fully understand his desire to take another step in his career goals. Aldo has made a lasting contribution to Saint Augustine in organizing our financial house. For the first time in many years, we passed the tri-annual audit performed by the Diocese of Cleveland. Given the many challenges we faced in sorting out our financial history this accomplishment was a near miracle. The auditor from the diocese made that comment in praising Aldo's work. In reviewing the finances of this year's Rainbow Camp, I can report that this may very well be the first time we ended the camp in the black with money to spare for next year. These are only two examples of Aldo's professional skill. We will miss him. Aldo, in the name of Saint Augustine Parish, Thank you and Good Luck. Aldo will be leaving us at the end of the month.

Bible Study on Prayer

Pope Francis has asked us to pray for the Synod of Bishops that will be meeting in Rome in October. This study will go through October as we pray for the Bishops.

Pat Takacs will lead weekly interpreted study sessions on Thursday nights from 6:30pm until 8pm with light snacks provided.

The Catholic site, Formed, led by Theologian Tim Gray, PhD, will be our guide in different forms of prayer. God's Word promises us that He inhabits the prayers and praise of His people. We are a people committed to seek God in prayer.

Please call the parish office at 216-781-5530 to register. If you cannot make all of the sessions, please don't let that stop you from signing up. A study guide will be provided that can keep you participating even if you cannot make all the sessions. The last Bible Study taught us a great deal about the Eucharist. This study will teach us much about prayer.

Hope to see you there!

Prayer of Abandonment

Father, I abandon myself into your hands;
do with me what you will.
Whatever you may do, I thank you:
I am ready for all, I accept all.
Let only your will be done in me,
and in all Your creatures-
I wish no more than this, O Lord.

Into your hands I commend my soul;
I offer it to you with all the love of my heart,
for I love you Lord
and so need to give myself,
to surrender myself into your hands,
without reserve,
and with boundless confidence,
For you are my Father.

~Blessed Br. Charles de Foucauld

Episcopal Careerism vs Child-Like Innocence

Father John R. Donahue,
(www.americamagazine.org):

The Gospel reminds the Church today of the dangers of ambition and posturing for positions of power. In recent years the genie of ecclesiastical ambition has been again let out of the bottle, so much so that Cardinal Gantin, once dean of the College of Cardinals and former prefect of the Congregation for Bishops, deplored episcopal careerism and said he was shocked by bishops seeking promotion from smaller to larger dioceses (America 6/19/99), a view echoed two months later by the then Cardinal Ratzinger ... Yet the pilgrim Church of God's people continues the work of justice, and the unprotected and vulnerable are welcomed and protected. Jesus has many unnamed companions today as he follows the path of self-giving for others that leads through death to resurrection. Only humility exalts.

The Christian Criterion of Greatness!

Jesus says that people who serve humbly are the greatest. He uses a play on an Aramaic word that can mean either servant or child. Presenting a child before them, Jesus explains that one who wishes to be the first among them must be a servant to all. True greatness consists in serving one's fellow men and is never self-centered. It lies in the ability to see and respond to the needs of others, and it presupposes compassion and sympathy. The two conditions of true greatness are humility and service. This vocation to service belongs to the Church as a whole and to every member of the Church. In other words, the Christian vocation is an apostolate of bearing witness to Christ through loving, humble service. Christian history teaches us that whenever the members of Christ's Church have forgotten or ignored this call to service, the Church has suffered. John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, gives us this motto on service: "Do all the good you can; By all the means you can; In all the ways you can; In all the places you can; At all the times you can; To all the people you can; As long as ever you can."

All are God's Children!

There is a legend told about Patriarch Abraham in the Mideast. According to the legend, he always held off eating his breakfast each morning until a hungry man came along to share it with him. One day an old man came along, and of course Abraham invited him to share his breakfast with him. However when Abraham heard the old man say a pagan blessing over the food, he jumped up and ordered the old man from his table and from his house. Almost immediately, God spoke to Abraham. "Abraham! Abraham! I have been supplying that unbeliever with food every day for the past eighty years. Could you not have tolerated him for just one meal?" We are all children of God. God has no grandchildren!
