For all who feel on the margins,

But who are at the center of your heart,

We ask you to open our hearts.

Help us to become a church and a nation where:

All lives have dignity,

All people are loved,

And all are welcome!

Pope Francis'

October Prayer Intention

For a Shared Mission

We pray that the Church continue to sustain in all ways a Synodal lifestyle, as a sign of co-responsibility, promoting the participation, the communion and the mission shared among priests, religious and lay people.

“The Eucharist is God’s response to the deepest hunger of the human heart.”

~Pope Francis

“If we are to have peace on earth, our loyalties must become Ecumenical rather than sectional. Our loyalties must transcend our race, our tribe, our class, and our nation.” Martine Luther King Jr. (1967)

Love Without Measure...

Today's gospel is not about money. It's about making choices. Yes, the man who comes up to Jesus has money. He has many possessions. But they are not his tragedy. His tragedy is thinking that he can choose everything. This man is already a good person/ He follows all the commandments. He has resources by which he can accomplish many good things. But what he wanted to do was simply add something more to the good things he already had: being a disciple of Jesus. Jesus says to him, "You can be my disciple. You can inherit eternal life. But first you have to let go of something you already have." The man could not do this so he walks away sad. His failure is a reminder to us we cannot have it all. In order to say yes to some things, we have to say no to others. Unless we are willing to pass on some very good things, we will not be able to attain the best things.

To say yes to the. Intimacy and support of marriage, we have to willing to say no to the freedom the single life affords. To say yes to any man or woman to be our spouse, we need to be willing to say no to every other man and woman in the world. In order to say yes to a challenging job that would stretch us, we have to say no to the comfort of an ordinary job that places few demands upon us. In order to say yes to a circle of friends that will support us our whole life long, we have to say no to many wonderful people for whom we do not have the time to develop relationships. We cannot have it all. This is why we must determine what is most important in our life and then be willing to let go of those things which hold us back from attaining it.

Now this is not an easy movement. We could be overwhelmed like the apostles in the gospel when they say, "Then who can be saved?" That's why Jesus's words are so important: "All things are possible for God." When we must let go of something we love for a higher purpose, when we have to say no to a good thing in order to attain something that is better, we might not have the strength to do that on our own. God is with us and all things are possible for God.

So, first we must look at our lives and discern what is important. And then we must pray, "Lord, you have shown me what to do. Give me the strength to let go of whatever holds me back from choosing it. Show me how to say yes by learning to say no."

Fr. Bill

😊 On the Lighter Side 😊

The parish church was badly in need of repair. The pastor called a special meeting to raise funds and explained the need of money for plastering the roof and supporting pillars and for carrying out other items of repair. He invited the congregation to pledge contributions. After a brief pause, Mr. Murphy, the richest man in the parish, volunteered to give 50 dollars. Just as he sat down, a hunk of plaster fell from the ceiling on his head. He jumped up, looked terribly startled and said: "I meant to say 500 dollars." The congregation stood silent and stunned. Then a lone voice cried out from the back: "Oh Lord, hit him again!"

Faith Formation

Bible Study on Prayer

There will be no Bible Study session this Thursday due to the Program at St. Noel's that evening. Bible Study will resume on Thursday, the 24th of October at 6:30pm.

Pope Francis has asked us to pray for the Synod of Bishops that will be meeting in Rome in October. This study will go through October as we pray for the Bishops.

The Catholic site, Formed, led by Theologian Tim Gray, PhD, will be our guide in different forms of prayer. God's Word promises us that He inhabits the prayers and praise of His people. We are a people committed to seek God in prayer.

If you cannot make all of the sessions, please don't let that stop you from signing up. A study guide will be provided that can keep you participating even if you cannot make all the sessions. The last Bible Study taught us a great deal about the Eucharist. This study will teach us much about prayer.

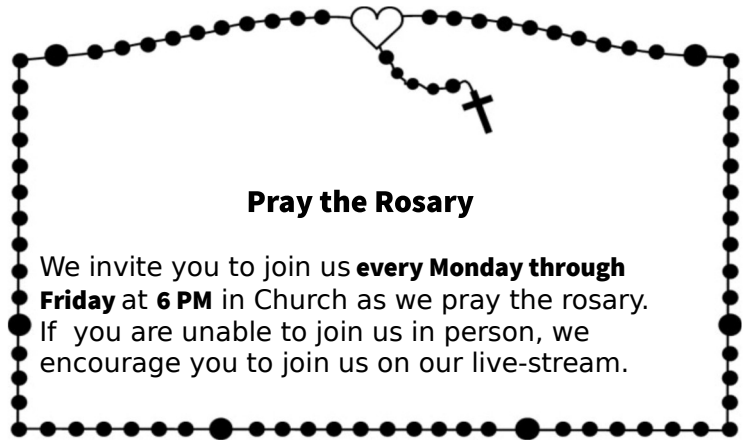

Hope to see you there!

Parish School of Religion

PSR will continue this Sunday from 9:45 am to 10:45 am and run through May 2025.

To register pre-K thru 8th grade or for more information, please contact Jessica Neuhart at JNeuhart@StAugustineCleveland.org or by calling the parish office at (216) 781-5530 ext. 23

Volunteers needed

Are you a joyful person? Do you like meeting new people? Have people told you that they look forward to seeing you each week at Mass?

We are looking for people who would like to greet people at the doors before and after our weekend Masses to make both strangers and regulars feel welcome.

St. Augustine's also live streams the 4:15 pm and 11 am Masses each weekend. We are looking for people to run the live stream. It is relatively simple and training will be given.

If we can get a few people for each Mass, the time commitment will be minimal.

If you are interested, or have any questions, please email Bob at BDuda@staugustinecleveland.org or call at (216) 781-5530 ext. 31

Next Sunday, October 20th, is World Mission Sunday. This is a unique opportunity for us to support the Church's mission in over 1150 territories worldwide. Our prayers and contributions help build churches, train clergy, and provide essential services to those in need. Please consider how you can participate and give, as you are able, next weekend in support of the Missions throughout the world. This year's theme is "Go and Invite Everyone to the Banquet".
